

Key Question: Why were Christopher Columbus, Amelia Earhart and Neil Armstrong very brave?

As geographers we will be learning to:

Use world maps, atlases and globes.

Identify the 5 oceans.

Wren Class Autumn2 Please use this overview to support your child's learning.

As historians we will be learning to:

Use words and phrases to suggest the passing of time.

Know where the people and events they study fit within a chronological framework

Identify similarities and differences between the lives of significant individuals.

Ask and answer questions, choosing and using parts of stories and other sources to show that we know and understand key features of events.

Understand some of the ways in which we find out about the past and identify different ways in which it is represented.

As linguists we will be learning to:

Develop our phoneme and spelling use with daily phonics and spelling sessions.

Explore and share a range of fiction and non-fiction texts through shared and guided reading sessions.

Improve our grammar and handwriting through writing a set of instructions and a biography about a significant historical figure.

Adopt, create and sustain roles through drama.

Refine & share whilst acting and perform to others.

Use our voices expressively through drama and song.

As mathematicians we will be learning to:

Read and write mathematical statements using +,-,=

Recall addition and subtraction facts fluently.

Use objects, jottings, written and mental strategies to add and subtract single and two digit numbers.

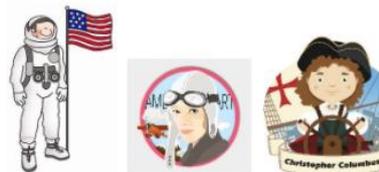

Recognise the values and denominations of notes and coins.

Recognise symbols for £ and p.

Combine values and calculate totals.

Begin to calculate change when solving addition and subtraction problems.

Count on in multiples of 2,5,10 and begin to relate this to multiplication.

In PSHE we will:

Celebrate our similarities and differences and discuss ways in which we are all unique.

As artists we will be learning to:

Use a range of materials creatively to design and make products.

Use a needle and thread to sew.

Use drawing, painting and sculpture to share our experiences and imagination.

