

As Historians, our big question is...

Why do we choose to remember the 5th of November ?

REMEMBERING

Prior Learning

I have an awareness of the past and can identify similarities and differences between ways of life.

I can find out about events beyond living memory and develop an understanding of significant individuals.

I can ask and answer questions to show understanding of an Event.

UNDERSTANDING

Sticky Knowledge

- Can I find out who King James I was ?
- Can I explain who the Roundhead and Cavaliers were ?
- Can I sequence the events of the gunpowder plot ?
- Can I explore who Guy Fawkes was ?
- Can I explain how and why we remember the 5th of November?
- Can I explain how the gunpowder plot related to the civil war ?
- Can I explain the impact this had on the democracy we have today ?

APPLYING

My Aspirations

Politicians propose, support, reject, and create laws that govern the land and, by extension, its people.

Vocabulary

Bill of rights	Dissolved	Parliament	Treason	Recusants	Tax
A document saying that Kings and Queens cannot tax the	When parliament is closed down by the King.	A group of people who advised the king.	The crime of not being loyal to your country or people	People who practised Catholicism under the rule of James I. They	Money that people have to pay to the King to support the country.