

As Historians, our big question is...

How have Rosa Parks and Nelson Mandela helped to make the world a better place?

REMEMBERING

Prior Learnin

Amelia Earhart and Neil Armstrong were famous for exploring the world around us.

Amelia Earhart went missing crossing The Pacific Ocean in 1937.

Neil Armstrong landed on the moon in 1969.

We can use timelines to order events.

UNDERSTANDING

Sticky Knowledge

- In the past black and white people had different rights. In South Africa and USA they were not allowed to share schools or sit next to one another on buses.
- In 1955 Rosa Parks did not give up her seat on the bus for a white person and was arrested.
- Nelson Mandela lived in South Africa and became South Africa's first black president in 1994 after spending 27 years in prison for wanting equal rights.
- Both Nelson and Rosa wanted and campaigned for everyone to have the same, equal rights.

APPLYING

My Aspiration

If you care about equal rights you might enjoy international charity work - You could help to make sure there is equality in food, water, safety and medicine around the world.

Vocabulary

Timeline	History	Human Rights	Equality	Evidence	The Past
A way of showing the order events happened.	The study of the past.	The rights and freedoms that belong to every human from birth.	Everyone should have the same opportunity.	Facts or information that prove something is true.	Time that has already happened.